The children in our classes are entrusted to us by their parents/guardians and most importantly, the Lord, to be taught/guided by someone who will be a good example by encouraging them in the faith and who would properly represent biblical integrity. Therefore we feel that it's very important for anyone who would be serving in the children's ministry to examine themselves closely to be certain that their lives are consistent with the scriptures and God's ideal of holiness and uprightness. The following standards are not to be a form of legalism but rather loving patterns in life which demonstrate a biblical example of integrity in front of the children we are called to be faithful stewards of. (see also 1 Tim. 3:8-12)

- Sexual Purity (I Thessalonians 4:3-7)
- Abstinence from illegal drugs or excessive drinking (Prov. 20:1, Ephesians 5:15-21)
- A lifestyle that properly represents the Lord in all things (1 Timothy 4:12)
- Gathering w/ the CSLO family to worship (Heb. 10:25)

Serving in the Children's Ministry is a commitment to the Lord + to the body of believers. Your personal relationship with the Lord should be your highest and greatest priority and kept with all diligence. If you can sincerely agree w/ all the above, please sign below. We look forward to see how God will use you in the lives of many children.
